

OCEAN CROSSWORD

ACROSS

DOWN

- 2. Drifts gracefully but carries stinging tentacles.
- 4. Bites off pieces of coral and helps create sand on beaches.
- 7. Heavy sea mammal with long tusks living in northern waters.
- 9. Natural living space for ocean plants and animals.
- 11. One of the fastest ocean predators, recognized by its pointed snout.
- 13. Brightly colored reef fish with flowing fins.
- 16. Structure built to calm waves and protect harbors.
- 17. Flat marine animal that hides beneath the sand.
- 18. Steady river-like flow of water within the ocean.
- 20. Completely dark ocean layer thousands of feet deep.

- 1. Inflates with water or air when it feels threatened.
- 3. Marine animal that glues itself to hard surfaces and some sea creatures.
- 5. Travels beneath the surface for long underwater journeys.
- 6. Water rescuers who also enforce boating laws.
- 8. Docking area filled with pleasure boats and yachts.
- 10. Coastal trees with tangled roots that protect shorelines.
- 12. Shape of the land where it touches the sea.
- 14. Elevated wooden path running along many beaches.
- 15. Gentle plant-eating sea mammal often called a sea cow.
- 19. Enjoying time on the water in all kinds of vessels.

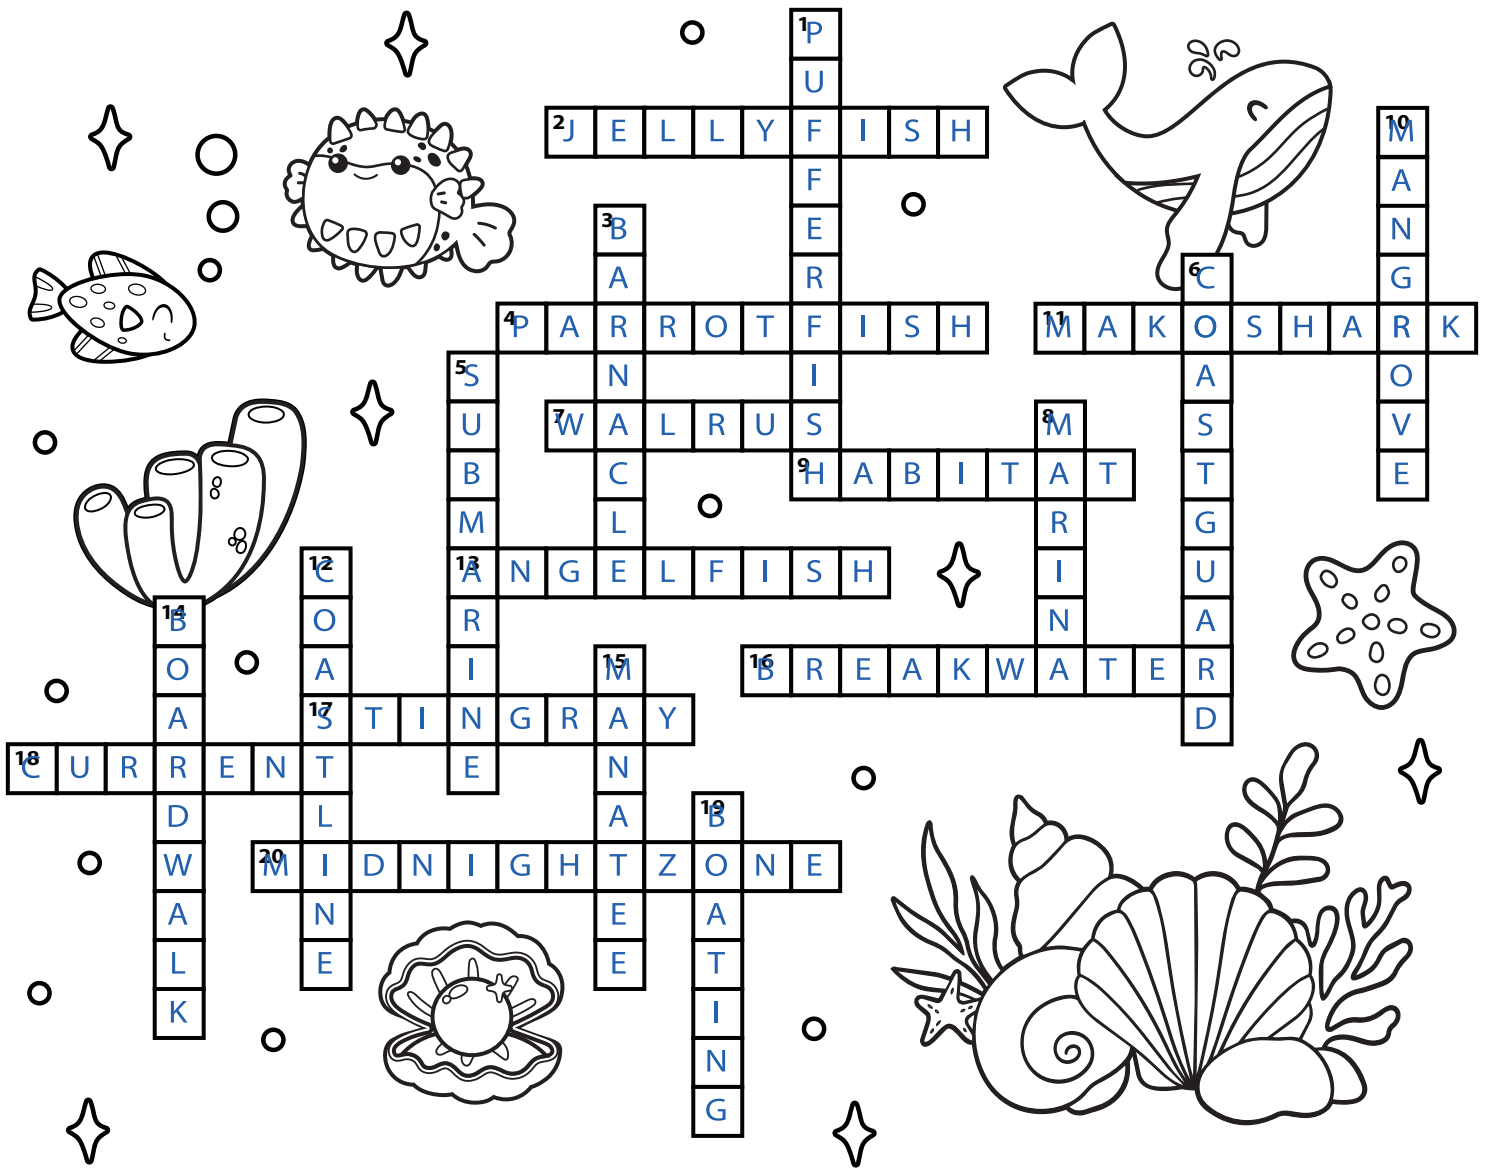

WARNING

Solution Zone!

Peek only if you're ready to see the answers!

OCEAN CROSSWORD

ACROSS

DOWN

2. Drifts gracefully but carries stinging tentacles.
4. Bites off pieces of coral and helps create sand on beaches.
7. Heavy sea mammal with long tusks living in northern waters.
9. Natural living space for ocean plants and animals.
11. One of the fastest ocean predators, recognized by its pointed snout.
13. Brightly colored reef fish with flowing fins.
16. Structure built to calm waves and protect harbors.
17. Flat marine animal that hides beneath the sand.
18. Steady river-like flow of water within the ocean.
20. Completely dark ocean layer thousands of feet deep.

1. Inflates with water or air when it feels threatened.
3. Marine animal that glues itself to hard surfaces and some sea creatures.
5. Travels beneath the surface for long underwater journeys.
6. Water rescuers who also enforce boating laws.
8. Docking area filled with pleasure boats and yachts.
10. Coastal trees with tangled roots that protect shorelines.
12. Shape of the land where it touches the sea.
14. Elevated wooden path running along many beaches.
15. Gentle plant-eating sea mammal often called a sea cow.
19. Enjoying time on the water in all kinds of vessels.